

FAQ

- What is CreatHere?

CreateHere is a collective of programs and projects, incentive funding and individuals working for creative economic and cultural development in Chattanooga.

- What is LeadHere?

LeadHere is a paid fellowship program designed to cultivate and empower emerging community leaders. The fellowship position is a 20 to 40 hour work week that changes based on community needs. LeadHere offers highly motivated individuals autonomous project management, allowing their work, ideas and energy to have a long-term impact on society.

- What qualifications and responsibilities are you looking for in a future fellow?

Some responsibilities included, but are not limited to the following;

- ✓ Leadership potential or experience. You start projects, rally people, and inspire others.
- ✓ Independent. Can work flexible hours and manage your time well.
- ✓ Strong self-starter, entrepreneurial. You don't need someone to tell you what to do.
- ✓ Excellent writing skills. Your work should be sharp, personable, and memorable.
- ✓ An organizer at heart. You should be eager to empower and engage others.
- ✓ Passionate about community and quality of life. Helping others is your life, not just your job.
- ✓ Willing to do what it takes to make a project come off. Low ego, high focus on getting stuff done.

Additional Qualifications

- ✓ Ability to communicate effectively and diplomatically with community leaders, CH staff, artist, and vendors.
- ✓ Good judgment and decision-making abilities
- ✓ Creative, innovative and entrepreneurial outlook
- ✓ Excellent negotiating skills

- How do I apply?

Candidates should e-mail their resume, references and writing samples to info@createhere.org. No phone calls please.

No Person will be excluded from participation in or otherwise subjected to discrimination in regard to services, programs and employment provided by the Lyndhurst Foundation DBA CreateHere based on race, sex, color, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, age or religion.